

Karla Penuelas

---

Karla Penuelas is a Staff Attorney with Public Counsel Law Center's Children's Rights Project. Ms. Penuelas heads the Guardian ad Litem Project, Teen Legal Clinic and Transitioning Foster Youth Early Intervention Programs. She has served as counsel on a number of education rights and immigration cases. As a former Adoptions Project law clerk, Ms. Penuelas worked to facilitate adoptions of foster children.

Ms. Penuelas is a graduate of Southwestern University School of Law and obtained her Bachelor of Arts degrees from UC Berkeley in Social Welfare and Psychology. She worked for several years as a Children's Social Worker with the Department of Children and Family Services in the Special Immigrant Status Unit assisting many foster youth obtain Lawful Permanent Resident status and later as a Children's Social Worker in the Permanency Planning Partner Unit.