

Robin T. Allen

Ms. Allen currently serves as the Executive Director of California CASA Association, an organization dedicated to promoting progressive child welfare policy and providing support and expertise to the 43 CASA programs in California. CASA stands for “Court Appointed Special Advocate,” and its mission is to find, train and engage dedicated volunteers who can be appointed by the court to advocate for the best interests of abused and neglected children.

Ms. Allen has been a nonprofit executive and consultant for almost two decades, and has proven herself a respected leader in statewide public policy forums. She has served on both the Permanency Planning and Fairness Equity committees of the California Child Welfare Services Redesign, and currently serves as a commissioner on California’s Blue Ribbon Commission on Children in Foster Care, and as a member of the California Child Welfare Council.
