

EARLY CHILDHOOD LITERACY

This collaborative, solution-generating event will include a panel discussion featuring some of LA's foremost authorities on early childhood literacy and offer a networking opportunity for all attendees.

REGISTRATION

Please visit www.jlla.org to register for this important community event.

A $15 registration fee is requested.

Parking is available on site.

For more information or if you have any questions, please contact Joana Duran at:

communityleadershipforum@jlla.org

DETAILS

Thursday, March 22, 2012

Children's Institute, Inc.
2121 West Temple Street, Los Angeles, CA 90026

6:30 p.m. Event Registration and Light Refreshments

7:00 p.m. Program Starts

9:30 p.m. Program Concludes

9:30-10:00 p.m. Networking

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Celia C. Ayala, Ph.D.

CEO, Los Angeles Universal Preschool

OUR DYNAMIC PANEL WILL INCLUDE:

Gerardo Loera

Executive Director of Instruction
Los Angeles Unified School District

Perri Klass, M.D., F.A.A.P.

National Medical Director, Reach Out and Read
Professor of Journalism and Pediatrics, New York University

Paula M. Carbone, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor of Clinical Education
USC Rossier School of Education

John Corcoran, Literacy Advocate

Author of The Teacher Who Couldn't Read and
The Bridge to Literacy

Tahra M. Goraya, M.A.

Director, Western Office
ZERO TO THREE Western Office

Karen L. Schiltz, Ph.D., Clinical Neuropsychologist

Associate Clinical Professor
UCLA David Geffen School of Medicine

MODERATED BY:

Linda McCorkel Clinard, Ph.D.

Literacy Specialist

THANKS TO OUR PARTNERS

